WEDNESDAY 17TH JULY 2019

I cannot believe it's time to write the last Nursery News of this year! The Nursery team are all so proud of the children, and they should be really, really proud of themselves too for all they have achieved. Thank you to all families that have supported Nursery in any way during the last few months, it's appreciated.

Good luck to all the children that are moving to Reception in September—we will miss you (but will still play together outside!) . Your new teachers are lucky to have you! Wow them with your amazingness and enjoy your learning.

To the children that are staying in Nursery in September...well done for settling so well in to Nursery, we are looking forward to another year of fun, learning and lots of playing too—you will be our oldest children and we look forward to you helping your new friends settle in.

This week's learning

We have been doing lots of counting and talking about shapes as well as comparing the different settings of stories (e.g. under the sea, the woods, farm). We have continued to practise our skills of rhyming and hearing the sounds in words this week. Remember to look at YouTube—jolly songs for the 'sound songs' that we sing in school. (Qu is on a different clip so you will need to search for it separately).

Home learning

Over the holidays please keep practising counting 10 objects slowly and carefully, recognising numbers, rhyming (read lots of rhyming stories and sing songs!, saying the sound that words begin with (you could play eye spy), 'sounding words out', listening for sounds around you and you could even visit the library!

Please remember to return all reading books this week—we will be asking for a £2 contribution for any books that haven't been returned to cover the cost of any replacements. Thanks.

Questionnaire

We really appreciate your feedback as we always want to improve our Nursery provision. Please return your questionnaire to the blue box that home learning and reading books go in—thank you :)

Games club

Apologies that Games Club was cancelled last week. We hope that you have enjoyed joining us on Wednesday lunchtimes! Please send back any outstanding games so that we can prepare for next year.
