

Suggested home learning timetable for Nursery (Based on Chicken Licken)

W/C 15th June 2020 – Please email me photos of what you’ve been up to 😊

	1 Reading	2 Phonics	3 Writing (mark-making)	4 Maths	5 Indoor play and outdoor play	6 Physical	INDEPENDENCE
Monday	Watch Mrs Ward’s version of Chicken Licken on Park Spring YouTube.	The sound of the week is ‘w’ Look at the images of the ‘w’ objects below and talk about them. Can you think of any other ‘w’ words? Remember to say ‘w’ gently, rather than ‘wuh’	Sit at the window/outside/at the park for a little bit and see how many birds you can spot. Draw / ‘write’ what you see in a notebook (squiggles are fine!) and count how many birds you see altogether. Which bird was biggest / smallest? Can you find out what type of birds they are? How would you do that? (internet or book). You could use kitchen tubes to be binoculars!		Follow your children’s interests and have fun! e.g. indoors: Play hide and seek Play the	9am Joe Wicks or Cosmic Yoga Or Go Noodle	How are you doing with these? Please email me and let me know... Wash hands with soap and water for 20 seconds Take shoes off Put shoes away Put shoes on
Tuesday	Where could we find out more information about eggs? (information book / the internet) Remind that computers / tablets can be used to find out so much information. Watch this clip about animals that lay eggs on BBC Bitesize https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zdw9wmn	Make up real and silly rhyming words from the room you’re in and go to the right object, e.g. ‘lofa, lofa rhymes with ...’. ‘sofa!’	Make 2 nests using inspiration from the video clip. What could you use to be the eggs in the nests? If you change the number of eggs by swapping them into the other nest are there still the same number of eggs? Yes! How many in each nest? Write a number label for each nest and then repeat with new numbers when the numbers of eggs change.		memory game (hide objects under a sheet) Outdoors: Make a mud kitchen!	9am Joe Wicks or Cosmic Yoga Or Go Noodle	Take coat off Pull sleeves the right way round Put coat away Make bed Put PJs under pillow Tidy toys on bed
Wednesday	Read a book together from Oxford Owl. I have set up a class login. Go to https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/ There is a pinky box at the top that says ‘My Class Login’ to click on.	Sing along to the Jolly Songs that teach us the actions to help us with remembering the different phonemes: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1Qpn2839Kro	Create your own chicken lifecycle in any way you would like (draw / paint / playdough etc). Talk about the order in which the life cycle happens (see image below). 		Go for a walk Play hide and seek Ride a bike / scooter	9am Joe Wicks or Cosmic Yoga Or Go Noodle	Put knives and forks on the table Put plate by the sink when finished eating Put toys away when finished with them
Thursday	Type in PSNursery then Nursery as the password (note capitals / lower case!) The book band level that is suitable for Nursery is LILAC	Draw some objects beginning with w and practice writing w yourself.	Create the parts of the lifecycle on different pieces of paper (or print out image below on a	Put the parts of the lifecycle in order then into a circle showing how once the chick is an adult it is likely to have chicks of its own and		9am Joe Wicks or Cosmic Yoga Or Go Noodle but feel free to explore any of the books together.		computer and cut out).	the process starts again.

Friday	Try finding some chicken books by using the search bar. How is their version of Chicken Licken different to the one Mrs Ward read?	Spend some time singing along with one of Mrs Ward's 10 minute Rhymes times on Park Spring Primary's YouTube channel (there are 5 to choose from). Can you find any egg songs?	Draw your own eggs – what shape are they.	Number the eggs in the nest and discuss their sizes compared to each other (smallest / biggest / bigger / smaller etc.		9am Joe Wicks or Cosmic Yoga Or Go Noodle

