School Food Ambassadors

We are excited to announce that we have our school food ambassadors back! Mrs Houghton has recruited some new children to join the existing team. We now have Mikey, Scarlett, Ella, Liselot, Hazel, Ronnie, Katie, Lyla and Madison.

They have already been around to each class (wearing their official lanyards!) To find out who might want sprouts with their Christmas Dinner!

Year 2—What have you been up to?

Year 2 have been doing some super writing of a Holiday Brochure for their islands which they created. They are also enjoying their PE dancing lessons where they have been learning Scottish dancing.

Year 6—It's been busy.....

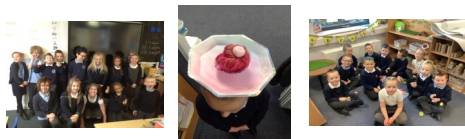

Year 6 had a wonderful curriculum day on Tuesday where they did a RE and learnt about the 5ks in Sikhism and learnt to sing in harmonies and play the glockenspiel to the song Happy by Pharrell Williams.

Wacky Hair Day

Wow today has been a wonderful day for Wacky Hair Day in support of Love the One and the four children in India who Park Spring sponsor.

Please watch the video for more information: Love the One

It is Nursery Rhyme Week in Reception

It has been another fun-filled busy week in Reception! We really enjoyed our PE lesson singing different nursery rhymes and doing actions. We know lots of different versions of Row, row, row your boat with crocodiles, lions and polar bears all involved!

We have also had fun in the classroom with Gelli bath and in the outdoor area learning about Road Safety - as you can see from our photos!

Now we are really looking forward to visiting Leeds Central Library in the minibus next week!
